declared that the Canadian knowledge of the results of the recently received information has been made for workmen to be sent from this country to Great Britain to take the places in industrial establishments of those who are at the front. In connection with this report, it was stated that 200 workmen already had sailed for England. Sir Courtenay says he has been deluged with inquiries, but that he knows nothing of the proposed arrangements.

Literary Note.

"I must confess that I don't understand Henry James. His style is so involved and so complicated that I can't tell you how to read about most of his books."

WANT THE WORST

London Paper Fosters Course of the Press Bureau.

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, April 15.—Daily Chronicle, in its editorial on Sir John French's dispatch on Neuve Chapelle, says in part: "Granted that it was inexpedient to let the news of the new early the measure of their defensive success, the daily press made it expedient to represent the affair as a whole in a less rosy-colored light. There seems to be still in the press bureau a kind of water-gate for speciality through its hands, a constant reflection of the false idea that the nation cannot be told the truth."

When looking for a reliable paper to get complete news, John W. Harris, a resident of the city, has a list of the best papers in the city. He says that the best papers are the ones that are reliable and give complete news.

WANT MORE NEWS

Continuity in France and Britain
Still Too Strict.

London, April 14.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The press censorship in both France and Britain is still far too rigorous for the needs of the war. The press in both countries is too much under the control of the government, and this is a disadvantage.

Be sure that the baby gets fresh, pure, outdoor air, day and night. Protect the baby from cold draughts, direct sunlight and dust but never, absolutely no difference—it is to be the richest country in the world and have not vitality in the organism.—H. B. Ward, dean of Medicine, University of Nebraska.
